Chair's Message

The National Australia Day Council (NADC) is committed to its mission of inspiring national pride and spirit to enrich the life of the nation. There are two fundamental ways that we achieve this - by promoting the meaning and celebration of Australia Day, and by recognising Australians and their successes through the Australian of the Year Awards.

In 2006, the NADC presented a number of exciting projects to support the meaning of and participation in Australia Day. Kalgoorlie Dawn began Australia Day celebrations by taking a moment to reflect on our past and our rich diversity. As dawn broke over the West-Australian mining town of Kalgoorlie-Boulder life on the goldfields and stories of the community were showcased. To support teachers in educating our young people on the ideas and meaning of Australia Day, the NADC developed the Being Australian resource and provided a copy to every Australian primary school. For the third year, Australia Day Live was held on Australia Day eve and it encouraged all Australians to participate in Australia Day. The two-hour concert broadcast live to the nation saw a stellar line-up of entertainers kick start the 2006 celebrations.

The Australian of the Year Awards inspires Australians to actively contribute to their community and nation. With 111 finalists in all states and territories a diverse range of people were acknowledged for their successes and achievements. The 2006 national recipients are truly inspiring Australians: Professor Ian Frazer, Sally Gould, Trisha Broadbridge and Toni Hoffman. The national announcement was again broadcast live to the nation and a one-hour documentary, sharing the inspiring stories of each of our national recipients was produced giving widespread exposure to their achievements.

Our success in 2006 is greatly due to the strength of our relationships with partners and sponsors. The delivery and growth of our programs would not be possible without them. I would personally like to thank our Prime Minister, the Honourable John Howard MP, for his commitment to our mission.

The NADC will continue to inspire national pride and encourage the celebration of Australia and being Australian.

National Director's Report

Strong attendance at events, increased editorial exploring the meaning of Australia Day and continued strong nominations for the Australian of the Year Awards demonstrates the strength of National Australia Day Council (NADC) programs.

KEY OUTCOME AREAS

In order to achieve its mission, the NADC structures its activity in three outcome areas, each with supporting aims. The structure leverages the strengths of the NADC and our network, and allows us to harness opportunities as they arise.

Key Outcome Area 1 Australia Day	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unite all Australians through celebration with a focus on Australia Day.</li> <li>• Promote the meaning of Australia Day through activity, education, reflection, discussion and debate.</li> </ul>
Key Outcome Area 2 Australian of the Year Awards	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Promote good citizenship, values and achievement by recognising excellence and service to communities and the nation.</li> </ul>
Key Outcome Area 3 Corporate Support	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Maximise efficiencies and effectiveness of the two program outcome areas.</li> </ul>

KEY OUTCOME AREA 1 – AUSTRALIA DAY

This outcome area unites all Australians through celebration, with a focus on Australia Day and promotes the meaning of Australia Day through activity, education, reflection, discussion and debate. Goals and highlights of successes follow.

A. Build understanding of 26 January as the day we come together as a nation to celebrate what's great about Australia and being Australian

- Australia Day key messages featured strongly in all NADC events and communication activities including:
  - Australia Day Live television event broadcast on Network Ten on 25 January.
  - television community service announcements.
  - radio community service announcements.
  - a 20-part radio series distributed nationally.
  - magazine advertising.
  - print advertising.
  - internet banner advertising.
  - avant cards distributed nationally.
  - over 3.75 million pocket calendars distributed through Woolworths/ Safeway stores nationally.
  - promotional materials provided to all local Australia Day Committees.

- Placement of all materials was free of charge and exceeded $1m in value.
- There were in excess of 539 press articles which included NADC key messages.
- The website continues to be an important communication tool with 191,641 site visits for the month of January.
- An education resource for upper primary students, Being Australian, was developed and distributed to 8,300 primary schools in Australia in September 2005. This resource complemented the national primary schools competition which achieved 400 entries from 750 students. The winners were awarded for each state/territory and nationally.
- The Australia Day National Network communication and marketing framework was implemented on a national, state/territory and local levels.
- Guest numbers were maintained at the Australia Post corporate functions held in the states and territories.
- The Australia Day achievement medallions program had its best year yet. 1,400 medallions were presented to government departments, agencies, and local committees.
- National leaders participated in events and activities. The Governor-General, His Excellency Major General Michael Jeffery AC CVO MC, participated in Kalgoorlie Dawn on 23 January and officiated an Australian citizenship ceremony held in Melbourne on Australia Day. The Prime Minister, the Honourable John Howard MP, announced the Australian of the Year Award national recipients on 25 January, and officiated at the Australian citizenship ceremony and flag raising in Canberra on Australia Day.

B. Encourage participation in Australia Day activities

- The Australia Day Live show peaked at about 800,000 viewers.
- Anecdotal reports from the state/territory network suggested that crowds remained strong at the major Australia Day events.
- In the ACT attendance at events grew significantly with more than 50,000 people attending Australia Day events on 25 January and 26 January.

C. Create a program which is inclusive of all Australians

- Communication materials included representation of Australians from a diverse range of ethnic backgrounds.
- The Kalgoorlie Dawn event held on 23 January provided NADC with an opportunity to showcase Australia Day as a day for all Australians.

KEY OUTCOME AREA 2 – AUSTRALIAN OF THE YEAR AWARDS

This outcome area promotes good citizenship, values and achievement by recognising excellence and service to local communities and the nation. Goals and highlights of successes follow.

A. Inspire Australians as a result of the awards program

- Strong media coverage throughout the year including:
  - 275 articles during the nomination period.
  - 294 articles about state and territory announcements.
  - 156 articles about the national announcement. (note: media monitoring covers press only, so electronic media was not monitored).
- National recipients toured extensively through the year speaking at and joining in community events and celebrations.
- Three events were staged in Tasmania and the Northern Territory, as a pilot for future Tour of Honour programs.

B. Build the awards brand to inspire widespread community interest and involvement in the program

- Total number of nominations including duplicates was 1,911. Total number of nominations without duplicates was 1,544.

- The breakdown for the 111 state and territory finalists was reflective of Australian society:
  - 89 finalists from metropolitan areas and 21 finalists from regional areas.
  - 9 indigenous finalists and at least 10 born overseas.
  - a range of disciplines were represented. 9 Arts, 9 education, 11 medicine/science, 3 business, 10 environment, 13 charity, 9 humanitarian, 10 sport, 23 community service, 12 indigenous/ethnic and 1 animal welfare.
- The national announcement was broadcast on Network Ten at 4pm on Australia Day.
- A documentary profiling the national award recipients was broadcast on Saturday 15 July on Network Ten.
- Of the four national recipients, one was born overseas; one is indigenous; two are from regional areas.

C. Strengthen the management of the awards program

- All finalists and recipients were of a high calibre and were well received.
- An efficient and effective business plan was developed, delivered and reviewed following each phase of the program.
- Program sponsorship increased by approximately 10% this year.

KEY OUTCOME AREA 3 – CORPORATE SUPPORT

The corporate support function maximises the efficiency and effectiveness of the two program outcome areas. Goals and highlights of successes follow.

A. Maintain positive and regular communication within the Australia Day network to maximise program outcomes

- The national network of state and territory Australia Day affiliate organisations has grown in strength in 2005-06. To support the delivery and administration of the programs, the NADC distributed a total of $793K in grants and sponsorship to these organisations.
- The NADC facilitated two major planning meetings of the national network through the year. One meeting of executive directors and one combined meeting of the chairs and executive directors. Three meetings are planned for 2006-07.
- The committee Australia Day in the National Capital Inc. (ADNC) retired following Australia Day 2006. Australia Day celebrations in Canberra are now to be managed through a three-way partnership of the ACT Government (Chief Minister's Department), National Capital Authority and NADC. I acknowledge the work and service of Mrs Marjorie Turbayne AO MBE, President of ADNC, and her committee over an extended period.
- The Tasmanian Government agreed to take the lead in presenting Australia Day and the Australian of the Year Awards in Tasmania from the 2006-07 program year. The change will see the retirement of the Australia Day Council of Tasmania (ADCTAS) in late 2006. I am very grateful to Mr John Gard, Chairman, and Mr Keith Butterworth, Executive Director, of ADCTAS and their council for the leadership of Australia Day for many years.

B. Ensure high standards of corporate planning and governance throughout the organisation.

- The NADC adopted a new constitution on 8 June 2006. The purpose is to bring the constitution into compliance with the Corporations Act 2001, and to confirm that the NADC is a Commonwealth company within the meaning of the Commonwealth Authorities and Companies Act 1997, formalising the manner in which the NADC is accountable to the government. The Commonwealth is now the sole member of the NADC. These changes have no effect on the manner of board appointments and negligible effect on the way NADC programs are presented.
- The NADC and the Australian Government have agreed on Statements of Corporate Expectation (from the government) and Intent (by the NADC).
- In 2005-06 the programs were directly aligned to the goals and objectives set out in the NADC strategic plan. Regular board and audit committee meetings were held with comprehensive and timely reporting. The NADC strategic plan will be reviewed following Australia Day 2007.

- Mr Reg Clairs AO retired as deputy chairman and director following Australia Day 2006. Ms Shelley Reys was elevated to the position of deputy chair. Four new board members were appointed. New directors, Mr Duncan Lewis AO DSC CSC, Mr Fergus Ryan, Dr Bruce Walker and Dr James Bradfield Moody, have brought new skills and networks to the organisation.

C. Maintain financial viability of the organisation.

- Members' equity (net assets) at 30 June 2006 was $597K representing 13% of the year's expenditure. This is a strong achievement and is the result of continued success in raising sponsorship and tight control on expenditure.
- A total of $2.717m of cash and quantifiable contra sponsorship and partnership funds were secured for the year. This represents 56.2% of total income.

- Notes to and forming part of the Accounts of the National Australia Day Council Limited for the year ended 30 June 2006.

The directors of the company are responsible for preparing a financial report that gives a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the company, and that complies with the Corporations Act 2001, Accounting Standards and other mandatory financial reporting requirements in Australia. The directors of the company are also responsible for the maintenance of adequate accounting records and internal controls that are designed to prevent and detect fraud and error, and for the accounting policies and accounting estimates inherent in the financial report.

Audit Approach

I have conducted an independent audit of the financial report in order to express an opinion on it to the members of the company. My audit has been conducted in accordance with the Australian National Audit Office Auditing Standards, which incorporate the Australian Auditing and Assurance Standards, in order to provide reasonable assurance as to whether the financial report is free of material misstatement. The nature of an audit is influenced by factors such as the use of professional judgement, selective testing, the inherent limitations of internal control, and the availability of persuasive, rather than conclusive, evidence. Therefore, an audit cannot guarantee that all material misstatements have been detected.

BARTON ACT
Phone (02) 6203 7300 Fax (02) 6203 7777

While the effectiveness of management's internal controls over financial reporting was considered when determining the nature and extent of audit procedures, the audit was not designed to provide assurance on internal controls.

I have performed procedures to assess whether, in all material respects, the financial report presents fairly, in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, Accounting Standards and other mandatory financial reporting requirements in Australia, a view which is consistent with my understanding of the company's financial position, and of its financial performance and cash flows.

The audit opinion is formed on the basis of these procedures, which included:

- examining, on a test basis, information to provide evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial report; and
- assessing the appropriateness of the accounting policies and disclosures used, and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management.

Independence

In conducting my audit, I have complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001. I confirm that the independence declaration required by the Corporations Act 2001 was provided to the directors of the National Australia Day Council Limited on the date this audit report was signed.

Audit Opinion

In my opinion, the financial report of the National Australia Day Council Limited is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

- (a) giving a true and fair view of the National Australia Day Council Limited's financial position as at 30 June 2006 and of its performance for the year ended on that date; and
- (b) complying with Accounting Standards and other mandatory financial reporting requirements in Australia and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

Notes to and Forming Part of the Accounts for the year ended 30 June 2006

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Basis of accounting

This general purpose financial report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, other mandatory professional reporting requirements (Urgent Issues Group Consensus Views) and the Corporations Act 2001. It is prepared in accordance with the historical cost convention, except for property plant and equipment which are measured at fair value. The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous year. Comparative information is reclassified where appropriate to enhance comparability.

b) Statement of Compliance

The financial report complies with Australian Accounting Standards, which include Australian equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (AIFRS). Compliance with AIFRS ensures that the financial report, comprising the financial statements and notes thereto, complies with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

Australian Accounting Standards require NADC to disclose Australian Accounting Standards that have not been applied, for standards that have been issued but are not yet effective.

The AASB has issued amendments to existing standards, these amendments are denoted by year and then number, for example 2005-1 indicates amendment 1 issued in 2005.

The table below illustrates standards and amendments that will become effective for NADC in the future. The nature of the impending change within the table, has been out of necessity abbreviated and users should consult the full version available on the AASB's website to identify the full impact of the change. The expected impact on the financial report of adoption of these standards is based on NADC's initial assessment at this date, but may change. NADC intends to adopt all of the standards upon their application date.

c) Property, plant and equipment

Assets are brought to account at cost. Assets or groups of assets purchased costing $500 and over are capitalised. Assets purchased costing under $500 are expensed in the year of purchase. Assets are revalued to fair value in line with the adoption of the Australian Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards. Assets are revalued in line with the directors' valuation.

Title	Standard affected	Application Date*	Nature of impending change	Impact expected on financial report
2005-1	AASB 139	1 Jan 2006	Amends hedging requirements for foreign currency risk	No expected impact.
2005-4	AASB 139, 132, 1, 1023 and 1038	1 Jan 2006	Amendment to restrict the option to fair value through profit or loss.	No expected impact.
2005-5	AASB 1 and 139	1 Jan 2006	Amends AASB 1 to allow an entity to determine whether an arrangement is, or contains, a lease. Amends AASB 139 to scope out a contractual right to receive reimbursement in the form of cash.	No expected impact.
2005-6	AASB 3	1 Jan 2006	Amends the scope to exclude business combinations involving entities or businesses under common control.	No expected impact.
2005-9	AASB 4, 1023, 139, 132	1 Jan 2006	Amended standards in regards to financial guarantee contracts.	No expected impact.
2005-10	AASB 132, 101, 114, 117, 133, 139, 1, 4, 1023 and 1038	1 Jan 2007	Amended requirements subsequent to the issuing of AASB 7.	No expected impact.
2006-1	AASB 121	31 Dec 2006	Changes in requirements for net investments in foreign subsidiaries depending on denominated currency.	No expected impact.
	AASB 7 Financial Instruments Disclosures	1 Jan 2007	Revise the disclosure requirements for financial instruments from AASB 132 requirements.	No expected impact.

* Application date is for annual reporting periods beginning on or after the date shown.

d) Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method so as to write off the cost of each non-current asset over its expected useful life. Additions are depreciated from the date of acquisition.

The depreciation rates used for each class of depreciable assets are:

Class of Fixed Asset	Depreciation Rate
Plant and equipment	10 - 34%

e) Revenue

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to NADC and the revenue can be reliably measured. Commonwealth Government grants are recognised in the year received. Government and corporate sponsorships in cash and in kind are recognised as revenue in the period to which they relate and are recognised at an estimated fair value on receipt. Revenue from the sales of goods is recognised when control has passed to the buyer. Interest revenue is recognised when the control of the right to receive the interest payment occurs.

f) Inventory

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

g) Employee Entitlements

Provision is made for the company's liability for employee entitlements arising from services rendered by employees to balance date. Salaries and wages and annual leave entitlements are expected to be settled within one year. Long service leave entitlements are not expected to be settled within one year. Contributions are made by the company to employee superannuation funds and are charged as expenses when incurred.

h) Taxation

Following a request to the Australian Taxation Office, the NADC is endorsed to access the following tax concessions:

- Income tax exemption from 1 July 2000 under Subdivision 50-B of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.
- GST concessions from 1 July 2005 under Division 176 of A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.
- FBT rebate from 1 July 2005 under section 123E of the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986.

i) Cash

Cash includes cash on hand and on deposit with financial institutions and are stated at their nominal value.

j) Financial Instruments

The policy on Financial Instruments disclosure is set out in Note 22.

k) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Tax Office. In these circumstances the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of an item of the expense. Receivables and payables in the statement of financial position are shown inclusive of GST.

l) The impact of the transition to AEIFRS

There are no changes to equity or previously reported profit as a result of the transition to AEIFRS.

2. MEMBERS' GUARANTEE

On 8 June 2006 the members of the NADC resolved, by special resolution that the NADC repeal its existing Memorandum and Articles of Association and that the NADC adopt a new Constitution.

On 28 June 2006, the NADC added the Commonwealth to the members' register and the other members of the NADC resigned their membership, making the Commonwealth the sole member of the NADC.

The company is limited by guarantee. If the company is wound up, the articles of association state that each member is required to contribute a maximum of $100 towards meeting any outstanding obligations of the company. As at 30 June 2006 the Commonwealth is the sole member of NADC.

In relation to the 'Retained Profits' shown under 'Members' Equity', it should be noted that Clause 1.4 Restriction on application of profits of the company's constitution provides that: "subject to Rule 1.5, all profits (if any) and other income and property of the Company must be applied in promoting the Objects and no part of them may be paid, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus, fee or otherwise, to Members or Directors."
